Why Participate?

Increase brand awareness & attract top talent: Build relationships with school counsellors who guide students towards their futures. Highlight your unique educational offerings directly to those who can advise their students on the next stages of their academic careers.

Maximise networking efficiency: Engage in focused 15–20 minute meetings with 5–6 counsellors from prestigious regional high schools – all within a comfortable setting before the Begin Edu Fair.

Connect with the right schools: Our reach extends beyond high schools included in our school visits. We connect you with counsellors from the best schools in the region, including those that are traditionally difficult to access.

Flexibility and customisation: We tailor the meetings to your preferences, selecting schools that align with your institution's goals.

Fees (per city): EUR 700

10% discount for 2 events,
20% for 3 or more events.

Our participants say

"Your wonderful B2B meetings exceeded all our expectations. We achieved everything we needed – new connections, opportunities for cooperation, and the main impact".
